

COMING HOME

Dear Family and Friends,

Thanks to many of you, the Fire On The Arrow CD has found a home in many places and in many hearts. Many of you have asked, "When are you going to record some of your new songs/chants?" Well, I have begun to work on the next CD, Coming Home. Coming Home will include most of the new songs that have come to me over the past four years as well as songs that I have written over the past twenty years. The Coming Home CD is going to start with a "spoken piece," called Hope. As one might expect, there will be many women's voices on this CD. Ruth Barrett, Amy Carol Webb, Kathy Crocco, dorrie Andermills and Karen Andermills have already generously shared their beautiful voices on five of the songs that have been recorded. The vision is to include Lee Hoffman, Shira Thompson, Falcon River, The Columbus Singing In Sacred Circle, the Cincinnati Singing In Sacred Circle...and, well, one never knows what else I may attempt to do as we move through this next journey...I always like to think of the possibilities as endless as well as leaving the timeline open ended for completion.

If you would like to support this project that is currently in bloom, there are several ways that you are able to do so. If you would like to pre-order a CD and/or "sponsor" a song, please complete the form below. As always, I deeply appreciate your support and encouragement! I have boundless gratitude as well as awareness that I am the luckiest woman in the world.

In Feminist Spirit and Love, Shelley
